

What about salaries, tax and health insurance?

Tax

You will be subject to withholding tax. This means that the tax will be deducted directly from your salary.

List of tariff for withholding tax (Link Tarife Quellensteuer)

<https://www.ag.ch/media/kanton-aargau/dfr/dokumente/steuern/quellensteuer/quellensteuer-arbeitgebende/qust-tarife-und-wegleitungen/2022-tarif-qst-ohne-kst.pdf>

Salaries

There are no nationwide minimal wages in Switzerland. The cantons of Neuchâtel, Jura, Geneva, Ticino and Basel-Stadt have a statutory minimum wage (between CHF 19 - 23 / h, depending on the canton).

You can find statistics for wages in Switzerland at <https://lohncheck.ch/>. Example for waiters and nurses (gross salary - before deductions of taxes and social benefits - per year when working 100%):

Pflege

47.959 - 64.771

CHF

Mittlere Lohnspanne in der Schweiz

Durchschnittlich verdient man als Pflege 4.375 CHF pro Monat. Davon erhält die Hälfte zwischen 3.689 und 4.982 CHF im Monat.

Serviceangestellter

43.510 - 58.688

CHF

Mittlere Lohnspanne in der Schweiz

Durchschnittlich verdient man als Serviceangestellter 3.839 CHF pro Monat. Davon erhält die Hälfte zwischen 3.347 und 4.514 CHF im Monat.

Health insurance

In Switzerland, health insurance is mandatory, but has nothing to do with the job. It is therefore not necessary for the application for a work permit. (With protection status S, you are included in the compulsory health insurance scheme).